Zoned R2, low density residential

Central Queanbeyan Benedict House

This gracious, landmark two-storey building is in a prime position.

It embraces rural living of the Monaro, but is also just 20 minutes from the Parliamentary circle.

The prime location in an historic street, with ample parking space, in a thriving region, that draws on the Canberra market, makes it an incredible business opportunity.

Featuring an elegant upstairs residence, then a versatile downstairs space that has been used as an award-winning café and gallery, legal and financial offices, short term accommodation and physiotherapy rooms.

Special zoning allows a wide range of commercial operations to take place on premises, with extensive flexibility, whether it be in hospitality, retail, as a museum, an even grander residence or more. Thirteen large rooms and a total floor space size of 1591 m² allows for endless potential.

Built as a convent in 1886, this historic building has housed a boarding ...
